

INTERMODAL RAIL

	INTERMODAL RAIL ADVANTAGES	TRANS AMERICAN ADVANTAGES
CAPACITY	Intermodal rail capacity is available on existing train schedules year round. Eliminate fighting for truck capacity by using Intermodal.	Trans American is able to work directly with the rail carriers to secure capacity that match our clients' needs.
FLEXIBILITY	Multi-mode combinations can be used to optimize the clients supply chain needs to the rail network.	Trans American provides expertise to optimize Intermodal solutions that deliver value to our clients.
PICK UP	Stress free pick up. Simply email or call us to schedule a pick up. Hunting for truck capacity is NOT required.	Capacity is guaranteed. Working together we will develop and implement the most efficient pick up process for the client.
DELIVERY	Two free days at the rail ramp offers delivery options that are managed to client requirements.	Shipments are tracked door-to-door to ensure our clients' expectations for delivery are met.
RELIABILITY	Train schedules are very consistent providing a reliable service to manage your supply chain.	A dedicated account manager is available to you 24/7.
SAVINGS	Intermodal rail typically yields a savings of 15% compared to full truck load.	We are able to recommend optimal routings to maximize our clients' savings opportunity.
SUSTAINABILITY	Intermodal provides a true benefit to the environment by reducing your carbon footprint through fuel efficiency (vs. truck).	We are able to provide client specific carbon emissions savings reporting as required.
SERVICE	Door-to-door shipments within the same rail network are typically over the road transit plus 1 day. Interchange lanes add an additional day or 2.	We guarantee our service to our clients. If a client doesn't experience an expected result they are entitled to refund based on a client rated 1 to 5 scale. (See terms and conditions for more detail).
VALUE	Intermodal can reduce your transportation expense and carbon footprint while providing flexibility and dependability within your supply chain.	As an extension of your logistics department Trans American is committed to advocate for our clients' needs and continuously offer opportunities to optimize your supply chain.
